

INTEGERMODULATED FILTER BANKS PROVIDING PERFECT RECONSTRUCTION

Alfred Mertins¹, Tanja Karp² and Jörg Kliewer³

¹ University of Wollongong School of Elec., Comp., and Tele. Eng. Wollongong, NSW 2522, Australia, Email:mertins@uow.edu.au

² University of Mannheim Lehrstuhl für Elektrotechnik, B6/26 D-68131 Mannheim, Germany, Email:karp@rumms.uni-mannheim.de

³ University of Kiel Institute for Circuits and Systems Theory 24143 Kiel, Germany, Email: jkl@tf.uni-kiel.de

ABSTRACT

In this paper, we extend the perfect reconstruction conditions known for cosine modulation to other, more general modulation schemes. The modified PR conditions provide additional degrees of freedom which can be utilized to design integermodulated filter banks. Techniques for the design of prototypes and modulation sequences are presented.